Press Statement on the Appointment of Tom Schultz As Chief, USDA

Forest Service: February 27, 2025: Today, Secretary of Agriculture Brooke Rollins announced she was naming Tom Schultz to be Chief of the Forest Service. FFRC Executive Director Bill Imbergamo issued the following statement:

“We congratulate Tom Schultz on his appointment to this critical job at this critical time. Tom has a great deal of experience managing public lands, and a strong background in and understanding of our industry. He is always thinking strategically about current challenges and those over the horizon.”

“The industry is ready, willing, and able to partner with the Forest Service as it goes through a period of unprecedented change. They could not have picked a better person to lead the agency.”
